

Itinerary for a new Future of Guidance Counselling

Guide My W@y! – A European Guidance Counselling Concept for International Youth Mobility

Description of the project

Europe's future depends on its youth. With regard to this context the job mobility of young people and young professionals within Europe as well as their guidance counselling and support through qualified education and career counsellors takes on increasing importance. This project aims at providing targeted support towards education and career counsellors regarding the circular, international job mobility of young people and young professionals. At its core are the developments of a European Guidance Counselling Concept and the provision of the corresponding online materials and tools.

Mannheim, 23.-24.10.2014

The first Kick-Off Meeting of the partners within the project (International Placement Services – ZAV, the universities of Santiago de Compostela (Spain) and Brno (Czech Republic), VLO Katowice (Poland), EURES counsellors from Plzen, Brno and Prague (Czech Republic), Katowice (Poland) and Vigo (Spain), lernmodule.net (Germany) as well as the Technical University of Kaunas (Lithuania) took place on 23rd and 24th of October, 2014 at the University of Applied Labour Studies in Mannheim.

Further information

The project “Guide My W@y!” will be promoted within the framework of the ERASMUS+ Programme of the European Commission and has a contract term of 2 years (September 2014 – August 2016). The project will be coordinated by the University of Applied Labour Studies (HdBA) under the guiding scientific hand of Prof. Dr. Florian Kreutzer.

Further information can be found on the website: www.hdba.de/forschung/projekte as well as by directly contacting the project team: Prof. Dr. Florian Kreutzer (Florian.Kreutzer@arbeitsagentur.de), Thomas Jäger (Thomas.Jaeger4@arbeitsagentur.de) and Elena Iuga (Elena.Iuga@hdba.de).